

Privacy Policy

When you visit our website, no personal information will be collected unless you choose to use or receive products or services that require such information. All transactions conducted through this website that involve credit cards are subject to up-to-date security protocols to ensure the strictest confidentiality of your personal information.

If you decide against using the Internet to provide the personal information that's necessary for us to process your order for products or services, you can contact us by telephone, fax or in person to order our products or services and we will be happy to process your order.

Often when you visit websites, a special type of file known as a cookie is deposited and saved on the hard drive of your computer. The usual purpose of cookies is to make it easier for you to navigate a website and for operators of the website to gather information about your browsing habits while visiting the site. Safety Group's website does NOT use cookies.